a rain of stones. The striker made another attempt to secure the gun, when the ranger shot him through the leg, and the battle stopped.

What is believed to have precipitated matters was the filing of 38 separate forcible detainer suits by the smelting company sgainst their striking employes. The suits were filed Monday afternoon in the court of justice of the peace James J. Murphy. In this way the company is seeking to oust the strikers who occupy their houses on the smelter premises.

Early Tuesday morning the band of 14 strikers congregated near the smelter. When ranger Russell appeared, the men told him, it is said, that they heard a number of men had been employed by the smelter company to take the places they had left vacant, and they were there to prevent that. The ranger told them it was an unlawful gathering and warned them to dishurse. The men it is said, refused to do so. One of the strikers assaulted a guard and attempted to wrest his gun from him. This man was knocked down. AND WAS BITTEN IN EAR

Joy Ride Is Misnomer.

A "joy ride" to El Paso and return proved to be a misnomer to a number from this place who went to El Paso on Sunday and left that city about 7 oclock that evening, unawares of the difficulties they must encounter on the way home. It had only rained a few drops in El Paso. They were surprised when about half way to Las Cruces to find they had struck a rain district. There was little chance of lodgment in that section, so the party n five autothat section, so the party n five auto-biles, among which were those of Messrs. Hayner, Mursh and T. R. H. Smith, de-cided to come on to Las Cruces. Chains and ropes were used, and after tryin experiences in the mud the cars reache here. Some of the tires were ruined, and some of the experiences were hair-raising ones, especially to the wemen

Texas Mother Tells of Tests Made By Herself and Daughter With Plant Juice.

"I have found your Plant Juice to be a real Godsend." Such is the state-ment made by Mrs. G. B. Rogers, who lives at 1710 Summer street, Houston, Texas, who has been using it for her-self and daughter. She spoke with seif and daughter. She spoke with enthusiasm.

"For myself I used it for kidney and hiadder trouble. My nerves were a wreck. My sleep was broken, and I was in constant pain night and day with my kidneys. Plant Julee has stopped the pain and I am resting better and feeling better than I have for months; but every mother should know what Plant Julee did for my daughter, she is seventeen, and every mother ie is seventeen, and every mother nows what a critical time that is in girls life. It just seems we lay a undation then for a life of health and applicess, or disease and misery. I clieve Plant Juice is a necessity for giris and women."

For women who suffer with extreme nervousness, who have hive spell and a desire to cry, who fret and worry over small things, or whose stomach, the stomach of the stomach of the stomach the st liver or kidneys are deranged, thore is nothing in the world so effective of Plant Juice. Get The Syrup Habit— It's Good For You

Velva Syrup is more than a mere sweet. It's a fine, wholesome, healthful food. It's just what growing children need - and it's good for grown-ups, too. Earnest, careful scientists have long ago exploded the mossy idea that sweets are harmful - and they tell you that sweets are necessary. You'll find the syrup with the RED LABEL, fine. It has the smoothest of sugary flavor and rich color. It makes candies, fudge, cakes and cookies that just melt in one's mouth. It goes great with griddle cakes and it wi'l make your good muffins, waifles and biscuits better. Try it and see if this isn't so. Ten cents and up, according to size.
